

MCM COMIC CON

COSPLAY VARIETY SHOW RULES

GENERAL INFORMATION

Within the MCM Comic Con events, which are owned, organised and staged by MCM Expo Limited, part of the Reedpop group of companies (“Reedpop”), Reedpop organises a Cosplay Variety Show (“the variety show” or “the Cosplay variety show”). These Rules set out and govern how each variety show is to be run by Reedpop at each MCM Comic Con.

Please send any queries by email to: MCMCosplay@reedpop.com - please indicate which show you are attending in the subject line e.g. “MCM London Variety Show”.

Participation in the Variety Show does not grant free entry to MCM Comic Con. You must have a valid ticket to participate.

HOW TO ENTER

- Online sign ups open 7 weeks before each event. Performance applications close after 3 weeks, please check the application deadline on the website and application form carefully.
 - No performance places will be available on the day.
- After applying via the website you will receive an email confirmation and a request for a full description of your performance and evidence of your skill/style. This can include similar previous performances, but rehearsal videos are very welcome and helpful for the panel assessing your use of the stage and your proposed performance. These must be sent by the deadline communicated in the application confirmation email and on the application form.
- Places are extremely limited and are allocated by a selection panel who will assess all performance applications, selecting a number of them to perform based on factors such as quality of scripts, originality, and variety.
- Successful performances will only be confirmed once the application and submission deadline has passed and the panel has made their selection.
- Only one application is permitted per person. If applications are submitted for multiple days (where available) only 1 performance submission will be considered by the selection panel. If you enter as part of a group you cannot also enter as an individual.
- If you secure a place in the Variety Show, the ReedPop Cosplay Team will provide “Where and When” instructions the week of the event. On the day, you must check in at Cosplay Central by the time communicated to confirm you are still taking part and check your details. The Variety Show will take place on the Main Stage before the Cosplay Masquerade, at the end of the day.

CRITERIA

The Variety Show is open to over 16s only.

The maximum group size is eight people.

COSPLAY VARIETY SHOW RULES

Here are some examples of typical cosplay performances:

- A short comical cosplay performance or 'skit'
- A dance or 'dance off' to music
- A lip sync/miming a song
- Singing live
- Playing an instrument
- Re-enacting a dramatic scene
- A magic trick or other show of skill*
- A choreographed fight scene*

the organisers may need further reassurances before approving these.*

Please note the following:

- Performance content must be suitable for a family audience. No profanity is allowed on stage. If your source inspiration is an age restricted movie, series or game please consider the content of your performance carefully with a family audience in mind.
- The time limit for performances is 3 minutes (but we recommend aiming for 2 minutes maximum in most cases and especially for singing and dancing performances)
- The MCM Team may be able to provide some simple items for use on stage, e.g. chairs or a table, if requested in advance. Anything that is unavailable must be supplied by the entrants and must be able to be set on stage and removed quickly. Items that can litter the stage, such as glitter or confetti or anything that will make the stage slippery, are not allowed.
- A hand-held, live microphone may be permitted for certain performances e.g. singing or comedy, conditional on having provided a similar performance observed by the MCM Team. Other types of microphone are not available. For other performance types you should use pre-recorded dialogue if your performance requires it e.g. for dramatic performances and skits. It will not be possible for the audience to hear you talk from stage without a microphone.
- We can only accept a single sound file, which we will start to play when you come on stage and continue until the track ends or you exit the stage. We reserve the right to reject poor quality tracks and so recommend sending in voice recordings as early as possible, so that we can check and inform you if it needs to be improved. If your performance is accepted you will be given a deadline to submit this by.
- Energetic performances, e.g. running, gymnastics or martial arts displays, require extra checks on the skills of the performers, and we reserve the right to interrupt performances for safety reasons.
- All costumes should provide enough coverage to be worn in public and should be in good taste and appropriate for a family-friendly show and must not contain material that is violent, pornographic or otherwise obscene, illegal, or racially or morally offensive or endorse any form of hate or hate group, each as determined by MCM Expo Limited in its sole discretion. Further, no costume or performance may include harmful or potentially harmful materials, including, but not limited to, water, cigarettes, flames, fireworks, silly string, or any other substance that can be fired, launched, or dripped. Additionally, each costume must comply with all laws including, but not limited to, those concerning copyright, plagiarism, trademark, defamation and invasion of privacy. Any costume which MCM Expo Limited determines to be in violation of the Criteria will be rejected as ineligible and disqualified from the Competition.

JUDGING & PRIZES

The judging panel will assess the performances based on the stage presentation to choose the 'Best Performance' who will receive a prize. Examples of what they may consider include: how well a character's essence is captured on stage for a dramatic performance; how amusing it is in the case of comedy or parody performances; or the level of skill demonstrated for talent-based performances. Overall a good performance should entertain the audience regardless of the style of the performance and without complete reliance on audience knowledge of the source material.

The judges' decision is FINAL- Please respect the judges and the other participants by accepting their decisions.
