

Food Safety & Guidelines for MCM Comic Con London

Summary:

To provide food safety advice for MCM Comic Con London.

General Guidance:

- The venue will provide all food and drinks for visitors and any hospitality you or your exhibitors may require.
- Any alternative arrangements must be discussed with the venue at the earliest opportunity and approved by the venue in writing.
- Where the provision of food and drink by other (external) caterers or exhibitors has been approved, full details or proposed preparation, cooking and dispensing arrangements must be submitted to the venue no later than 28 days prior to tenancy.

What to do for Pre-show?

- Provide an overview of food product the exhibitor is bringing to MCM Comic Con London to RX Global and ExCel London.
- Be aware that there may be a charge from the venue for on-site consumption of food and drink.
- Any licensing required must be obtained and paid for by the exhibitor.
- Please see the link here to the eGuide for additional information about catering.

Onsite:

- There is an inspection process carried out by ExCel London and should changes need to be made, the exhibitor will comply with venue rules.
